HOLLIDAY, WISE & Co. Franking, 11th April, 1988 TO THE COMMUNITY

OF HONGKONG. NOTICE.

THE PLAGUE RECOGNITION GENERAL COMMITTEE have the honour to lay before the residents of Hongkong the following STATEMENT, and to APPEAL for further SUBSCRIPTIONS to enable them to redeem their Promises in regard to the Recognition to be accorded to the numerous Workers during Last Year's Plague. It will be remembered that when the Appeal for FUNDS was first made it was intimated that a sum of $5,000 would probably be adequate to meet the cost of Medala, &c &b. As SUBSORIPTIONS flowed in freely from the EUROPEAN COMMUNITY and it was ressonably expected both that the CHINESE COM-MUNITY would materially help and that the receipts from the PLAGUE CONCERTS would be substantial, it was estimated that a sum of contains a number of Handsome Illustrations new), BEVELLED OVERMANTELS, 86.500 would result from the Liberality of the Acting on this Estimate and being guided as to the probable cost of Madais by an expert, the COMMITTEE increased by 50 per cent, the namber of Gold Medals to be awarded. It now transpires that the Reliance of the COMMITTEE upon the CHINESE COMMUNITY and upon the PLAGUE CONCERTS was misplaced, as, instead of sums of $2:000 and $1:500 stated at the time to be the sums derivable from these two sources, the total amounts so nally received or atill due are only $145.00 and $416.00 respectively: in addition to this, the Estimate of the charge for Medals locally ascertained has proved to be wide of the mark. The COMMITTEE are in a position to state that the cost of Medals as they are now advised will FTHE Card published at the Daily Press Office HANDSOME DRESSING TABLES. be about $5,500, that the Plate, Ac. will cost $1.800, and that a sum of at least $700 will be re-Italian Convent, and other Dingoings.

Under the above or commetences the Comment

quired for Letters of Tuanks, Courfbution to TER make a FRESH APPEAL to the Gene-Captain Outram, will be desputched for the above | rosity of the COMMUNITY for a BUM of $3,000 AT LEAST, and tirust that it will not be in cumbent on them to so back on the Underbaking to which they have been committed by speech

Canadian That is more information than is given on one printed in London for which lifty cents is charged. The price (outh only) of the locally printed correct ward is 20 mats on paper, 30 283 cente on card.

> SPORT AND ANECDOTE BY AN OLD FOORY.

SATHERING OF THE CLANS.

There was quite a gathering of the claus connected with sport on the occasion of the inaugural meeting of the Sporting League in London the other day, racing, scalling, athletics, football, and other kindred sports being most influentially represented. Besides the many notabilities present, letters expressing sympathy with the objects of the Langue were read from such well-known gentlemen as Dr W. G. Grace. Lord Hawke, Lord Durham, Mr. Clement Scott, Mr. Leopold de Rothsphild, Mr. F. 1. Currey. Mr. J. M. Richardson, Sir J. Blundell Maple, and others. The representative character of the Longue is unmistakable; and whether we like it or not it is very evident that this latest organisation is destined to figure very largely in the world of sport. With the opinions of many of the leaders, it. is impossible for any fair-minded man to disagree. For instance, Lord Durham says that honest sport is "undeniably the strongest link we have between all classes of the population. A pessant can be as good a sportsman as a poor; and a pear can indulge in sport with the happy consciousnees that it brings enjoyment to thousands with whom he would have otherwise too few common amusements and interests." Such broad-minded views as these are commendable in every way. Dr. Grace wrete to say that he was "very pleased to see our friend Mr. J. M. Richardson got in for Brigg." Mr. F. Innea Currey (an ex-Pre-The SECRETARY read the report of the As- sident of the Rugby Football Union) assured sistant Surveyor on the condition of house drains | the organisers that "the League will have the at blooks 186, 187, 191, and 192, and upon this staunch support of all football men." JUDGE HUGHES AT RUGEY SCHOOL.

Amongst the many famous men who have been sent forth into the world from the grand old school at Rugby Judge Bughes may claim a since be bade farewell to the scenes of his was lovingly cheriahed was amply demonstrated Hughes's visit:- "There is, of course, no man living who so vividly recalls to us the days when the genius of a great headmaster placed Rugby shead of all other English schools. It was a scene which we believe will be treasured up in the memories of all who witnessed it—the Old Rugbeien, addressing as fifty years after he left Rugby, the medium of that aterling book for boys. "Tom Brown's Schooldays," that the outside world got a glimpse of life at Rugby School, with its Bigs de football, cricket, and the hare : and hounds. All these are institutions now, but whether another pen will tell the tale in 1940 or so cannot possibly be forefold. As Judge Hughes is likely to figure prominently in the public eye for some time to come yet, perhaps a few extracts from his address at Ragby, " fifty years after," may prove of some interest, All of it is well worth reading over and over again, PIPTY YEARS AFTER.

From "The Meteor" (Ringby, February, 1891) Sextract the following passages from the seldress of Judge Hughes in New Hig School -- Just Arnold's last year. He died in Jans, 1342. ing of prerige weekly mortality comparisons gone through it from the third to the sixth, in

So interesting is the story that I am tempted to give a little more of Judge Hughes. Said he: "After thinking the matter over with some care I resolved that I cannot do better than give you my riow of whet it was that the average boy carried away from our Rughy of half a century; ago; which stood him in best stoad, and was of the highest value to him in after life. I have been in some doubt as to what to put first, and am by no means sure that the few Brown & Co., H. On this he urged that "there is no discipline of more value than to learn to say frankly and positively and to act on the words-' I can't afford A FINE PERGRATION

And this is how the worth judge partly finished his inspirating address;-" And now my time is ur and I have only to wish our moble old school and you of this generation who belong to it, 'God's-speed,' It is allowed to few men to revisit their old bovish harnts, and revive old school memories, after fifty years, and to come in touch with one company of that great host in whose hands the future of our England restr for good or ill, who are ev. p now buckling on the armour which we are laying down. If ever one of von should chance to come back bere in 1940 to speak to b the Rugby boys who will then be sitting on those benches, he will know how pathetic an experience it is, he will be able to appreciate the soleme but yet hopeful thoughts which crowd on me to night-sclean indeed, but get full of hope. For I will pever believe that the living faith which was breathed into this school fifty years ago will ever be allowed to fade out while the world stands: the faith which made the Rughy of my time a missionary school, from h which the whole higher education of England drew a new inspiration and a new life." Much as I should have liked to have quoted his advice; to the boys, interspersed as it was with the most felicitous quotations of poetry and prose, I think I have given sufficient to show what a memorable address this grand old Judge delivered fifty years after he had left school.

THE TROUBLE IN THE RUGBY CAME: apporters of the "broken time" ar angement and the Committee of the Rugby Union will end in a flasco. That the authorities would have won pretty easily had it been a struggle between amateurism and the makeshift propositions emanating from the North may be taken for granted.
